INK MANUFACTORY.

No. 50, Calle 25 de Mayo.

And is prepared to sell as good Ink, as any made in any part of the globe and warranted to retain its beautiful jet black color which it has at the moment when used, at 50 p.% less than the same can be bought at any other house.

People under the impression, that they pay their $20 rnp. for a quart bottle of English Ink, can have the same proved, that most of the Ink sold for English, is made in this country, and imposed upon the public as such. But I am not ashamed to put my own Name on the labels, being fully convinced that my Ink is of a much superior quality, and no cases more virtues than most of the Inks.

I—It is of a very rich black at the moment when used.

II.—It pains its color.

III—It is freely soluble.

IV—I preserver of the even tenor of the writing, which for a night possesses they need not so force their quill pens, so as what they have written.

For the reasons examined, I hope that any gentleman generally entertained of Inks of Home manufacture will be induced to make a trial of this the same which will be a benefit to the country and the consumer, in assisting home industry.

N. B.—Orders left at the office will be punctually attended to and delivered free of charge.

SUNDAY, MARCH 29, 1863.

THE GREAT SOUTHERN RAILWAY.

There is a mysterious silence hanging over this enterprise, which has been the prolific parent of numerous illnatured reports. Some emphatically give out that the whole thing is knocked on the head, others affirm that many shareholders have withdrawn, while the majority seems to have agreed that Mr. Lumb's trip to England, by next packet, has for object to level the existing obstacles whatever they may be.

We have waited impatiently each mail from Europe, to hear that the watchword from London "all right" would be the signal for inaugurating the works. The engineer and contractor's agent stand with their arms ready, to give the attack, but the mechanism is not yet set a going, and ill wishers say there is "a screw loose." The recent arrival of another engineer, at first made us believe in a speedy commencement, but this seems as distant as ever. The question naturally arises, Who is in fault? Certainly not Mr. Lumb, who has given a million of dollars in pledge of his sincerity and into rest in the undertaking. Neither can we inculpate Mr. Green, whose efforts in London were extra-zealous, and of whose smartness in such matters no one doubts. Nor is Mr. Robertson open to suspicion, since he is leading shareholder, and proverbially friendly to all B. Ayrean enterprises. Finally it is not the English press, which has ever advocated the scheme, nor our local journals, who likewise supported it for various motives.

There is evidently a difficulty, and we must conclude the Provincial Government is the cause, being over-tenacious of the letter of the law, while the country loudly calls for the realization of so beneficial and important an undertaking.

In Europe, they cut a tunnel through the Alps, or throw a bridge across an arm of the sea, when a railway is really wanted, while in B. Ayres the section of a hasty paragraph, or a gap in the statutes of the company offers an insurmountable obstacle. We deeply regret to see Mr. Lumb lose a million paper dollars for his pains to advance the country: we should not wish to find Mr. Green had his journey for nought: we should be pained to think the credit of B. Ayres had received a fatal wound on the London exchange. Nay! But all these are minor matters, compared to the heartfelt grief we should experience if the greatest B. Ayrean enterprise ever projected should cut, as fiasco. It is not merely an operatic debut, or convivial party, the success of which affects the character of its individual. It is a grand national work, with which are bound up the progress and industrial development of a whole people.

Before it is yet too late, let our Provincial Government take heed. If they want capital and labour introduced into the provinces, they must require to the business friendship of such men as Peto Betts; if they will encourage energetic foreigners to push the country ahead, let them waive trifling matters of punctilio, and frankly shaking hands with the English shareholders, welcome them to the sky-sept shores of La Plata.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

We publish to-day an exact translation of Mr Wheelright's contract with the National Government, for the building of the Cordova Railway. The liberality of the Government merits our warmest admiration, and contrasts strangely with the miserable pettifogging of our Provincial rulers in the Chaco and Indian affairs. The people of Buenos Aire have yet to learn a few bitter truths. They have applied to England for a loan to redeem the currency, but it is all moonshine: the idea of their getting one farthing, unless they first divorce this Government from the bank, which they seem unwilling to do. Now, we want the railway to Chascomus just as much as the people in Cordova want a railway to Rosario. Yet, owing to the glaring ignorance and contemptible narrow-mindedness of certain parties, we have had the more numerous the objections and alterations they put forward, the more the voters at the clubs will respect them, this most essential of enterprises for the prosperity of Buenos Ayres is in statu quo. Whereas a railway is to be built in the United States, no matter in what State, the opinion of the capitalists is in New York, Boston and London is taken, and their terms known, before a single spade is granted: but in Buenos Ayres it is different. The opinion of fiscals, escribanos, clerics, and smaller fry, is taken; and the nearer and more contiguous these fellows are, the more they are thought about, and the safer is the country. Men who know something about railways accept no bribes on one side, and their opinions laughed at. In fact, we regret to say it, but we verily believe that unless the Government takes more vigorous measures, and deals in re openly and frankly with the Chascomus Railway Company, it will be some time before the trains cross the Barracas river.

The people of Buenos Ayres ought to have sense enough to know, that if they are anxious to keep up their currency, they must get fresh capital into their country, they should be cautious that the Governor of the Province has a reputation beyond the Capital Square or the town of Zarate. We want a Governor whose name is known in Liverpool, Manchester and London as a landmark over the industry, commerce and welfare of the country, and sell by auction all our swords and bayonets, which will not tempt the Governors of Attorney generals in the price of a railway sleeper or the size of a screw. Such a man is the proper person to come to the aid of the authorities to expect such a Governor in Buenos Ayres.

On Monday another burning is to take place in the Bank, of $540,000.

We have this day forwarded to the Minister of the Interior, 13 pamphlets in Spanish on the subject of Cotton cultivation, in response to a requisition that they may be forwarded to each of the Governors of the provinces.

The Paraguayan war will see that they accompany the seed which he received from us to send into the Interior, as nothing can be further from the truth than the directions contained in this little work.

Barracas is a gay little place: the people seem always to be enjoying themselves. On evening at Mr. Pongerard's English Grammar school there was a regular fete champetre; all the parents and friends of the pupils were invited, the quints was beautifully lit up, the table spread under the trees and dancing kept up until midnight, every thing passed off with the greatest eclat.

The chief of Police is still keeping us in a state of suspense. The day before yesterday, a gentleman had a valuable English pointer poisoned in broad daylight: our friend considers that the dog was poisoned by mistake, now that the weather has got cool, to be throwing large pieces of poisoned beef, at 5 cents per sterling. We hope Mr Canon will stop the poison.

We learn, with much pleasure, that the Northern Railway keeps pushing ahead, and it is now a month since it was thought it will reach Los Olivos. Our spirited friend, Dr. Wineberg, has, we understand, given a large piece of his property for a station house and depot, and in the agent of the Co. meeting the Dr. with the same liberality, has presented him with a free ticket for life, to act in perpetuity. We trust that Pueblo Mitre will be graced with a handsome station-house of the same name.

MONTEVIDEO.

THE Hiberno-Italian, Scally, is the subject of great betting: it seems he has found a match for his wrestling powers in one Guilhaumé, against whom he is now pitched for 100 doubloons. The chief of Police, being like our own, morally inclined has imprisoned a Mulatto and nigger woman for keeping a house of ill-fame, and sent two filles de joie to the Paupers' Asylum. Six American sailors have been put up by their consul. Bernardo Iturrade fell from his waggon and was run over. Mr. Ifield, the clergyman who resisted the Vicar's interdict, is about to be named one of Bishops.

The Senate is occupied with military reforms. It is proposed to send a resident minister to Paraguay: the session is suspended for two days, as the committees have a large amount of business on hand, and it is necessary to attend to their report.

The Chamber of Deputies has the following projects: abolition of passports; reduction to 1 per cent of the duties on Plate, and to 2 per cent on Cabral, the former 100, the latter 90; to enable them to study in Europe; pensions, of two-thirds salary to the widow of the late Col. Pagola, and of full salary to the widow of Major Martinez.

The price of 500 doubloons fell to num. 3657. The Norwegian Consul Gen. has sent a despatch thanking the Government for the assistance rendered to the barque Rolas, by the authorities of Maldonado. The 1st, 2nd, and 3rd battalions of Nat. Guards will be reviewed on Sunday morning in the Plaza Cagancha. D. Carlos Aguilar, perfumer, of calle Mayo has disappeared. The Nuncio has published his decree appointing Mr. Kelly, Oriental Vicar, with faculties to give consumation &c. The Italian consul in name of Victor Emanuel has built in the United to the Chief of Police for his kindness towards some ship-wrecked sailors.

Berenguer, manager of the Spanish Dramatic Co. has drawn the silver dollars in the lottery. Four passengers came to Buenos Ayres, in the Mersey, without passports, the office being closed.

CLUB BUENOS AYRES.—A meeting is to take place to-day, at Colon Theatre, Members are requested to throw bouns or any specimen of other vegetable production, from the boxes to the pit, as happened at the last meeting.

THE BUFFS gave a performance on Friday, for the benefit of the director of the orchestra, Mr Guerin. The house was completely full, and no seats to be had.

PUBLIC LIBRARY. It is a pity that this establishment is not opened to the public on holidays or at night time; at present the hours are very inconvenient and cause much annoyance to rich people can go, and certainly these are the people who less require the public library.

CATTLE.—The average price of the provision of cattle to the frontier troops, obtained by Messrs. Madero and Siebel from the Government in the night dollars less than last year.

ON TUESDAY, Wednesday and Thursday the examination of the scholars at our Negotiete's English school in the Cavallito, is to take place commencing at eleven o'clock in the morning.

Parents and former pupils of this school are invited to attend.

FRUIT.—The Siglo of Montevideo publishes some very interesting particulars about the fruit trade of that that city. It appears that, besides the large exports to Buenos Ayres and the rivers, the French packet took in her last trip to Rio Janeiro, 750 boxes boxes, and that the exporter, Mr Margat, has sent, in one year, the value of 50,000 dollars silver.

The export of eggs, fowls and fish exceed this branch considerably. Buenos Aires, instead of being a producer, is the largest consumer.

THE PRINCE OF WALES.

His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales arrived at Sandringham on Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock, accompanied by Lieut. General Knollys and Captain Greg, including the party there for a fortnight's shooting. The journey from Buckingham Palace was made by the Great Eastern Railway ordinary train, and was quite uneventful, except the extreme length of time which it occupied. In accordance with the expressed wish of the Prince, there were no demonstrations on the journey, although at most of the stations and gatehouses large crowds assembled. At the Wolferton station the Royal Highness was received by a large number of tenantry, who, in deference to his Royal wish, preserved the most profound silence. His Royal Highness on Wednesday, in company with Lieut-General Knollys, Captain Grey, and Mr Leek, the steward, made an inspection of the estate, which is really a most beautiful one, affording a rich variety of scenery, and also abounding with an excellent stock of game. The preserves are well filled, and some excellent sport will no doubt be afforded his Royal Highness. In addition to the ordinary game, there is a good supply of wild fowl, woodcocks being very plentiful. His Royal Highness intends entering the hunting field next week.

GRAND REQUIEM.—On the 16th ult. a solemn Requiem mass was sung at St. Patrick's Cathedral, New York, for the repose of the souls of all the dead of the Irish Brigade since the beginning of the war. The mass of the occasion was Mozart's short Requiem. The famous band of the receiving ship North Carolina was present, and incidentally performed, in masterly style, the following music:—Aria from Stabat Mater, selections from Tannhauser, grand march from Gabrielle, and cava tina from I Masnadieri. A guard of marines detailed for the occasion occupied the centre aisle during the services, standing on either side of the impressive coffin of the deceased. The Rev. Father Ouellet, chaplain of the 69th Volunteers, or Father Willett, as he is sometimes called, sang the mass, Father Maguire was the deacon, Father Woods sub-deacon, Father Starr performed the absolution, and Father M'Keirey was master of ceremonies. The entire services were exceedingly imposing, and were witnessed by as many as could crowd within the spacious edifice. Brigadier-General Meagher, accompanied by many officers of his brigade, occupied prominent seats, and the General particularly was the object of much observation, as he was, in the course of the sermon, addressed several times from the pulpit. The sermon was preached by the Rev. Father O'Reilly, chaplain of the 69th Regiment of New York State Militia, or, as now known, the 69th New York National Guards.

AMBER TEETH SETTING.

156—Calle Cuyo—156.

Charles Mouton has invented a new invention, amber, which is found superior to every other made, it accommodates itself to the gums and palate much better than gold, which requires springs. A set of teeth in amber, after two days, serves for masticating, speaking, and has a life time.

My collection of artificial teeth is very fine, and cannot be distinguished from a natural set. I will also clean teeth with great care.

I have a number of instruments for extracting roots of teeth, also for stuffing the same with gold, silver etc., which I guarantee for a number of years.
